End Times and 2019: The End of the Mayan Calendar and the Countdown to Judgment Day By David Montaigne

End Times and 2019 reviews the evidence suggesting that the end of the world as we know it will occur in December 2019. Fact after fact is presented in logical order, progressing through astronomical clues given by the Maya, Egyptian pyramids, world mythology, and especially the Bible – leading readers to a timeline of events for our civilization’s final years. The author’s claim – while bold and controversial – is backed up with hundreds of documented citations and additional hundreds of Bible quotes, all of which point to the same events ending in 2019. (His next book, Antichrist 2016-2019, focuses on the many clues pointing to the middle of the final seven years.)

He makes us think about old information in new ways. Why do so many bible passages seem to describe a pole shift? Why are there so many astronomical references in the bible? Why do those descriptions match the positions of heavenly bodies in the night skies EXACTLY seven years after the end of the Mayan Long Count in December 2012? Why do the movements of the sun and planets correspond to the major steps of an ancient Jewish wedding ceremony for the week starting December 21, 2019?

Well written, I believe well researched & footnoted, I doubt I would have ordered hard copy, but digital download was a understated find of the decade (what's left of it) and I believe priceless for those whom have been searching, studying, & trying to make sense of the tea leaves being strewn about with eyes that see but do not perceive.

Montaigne's title gets right to the point: his research concludes that Judgment Day is in 2019. But the Mayan-style cover is a bit misleading because most of the chapters are based on bible prophecy.

A profound work meant for Believers and non-believers alike. Never before have I experienced such a thoroughly researched and well-articulated treatise on the most important issue of our times. The author meticulously constructs a likely and plausible end-Times scenario based on facts gathered from Scripture, science, mythology and many traditions... I would challenge anyone to refute the process and conclusions contained in this manuscript.

Our "leaders" are not ignorant of these events. The elite already know what is about to happen and they have made preparations most rational people would not believe, because evidence is suppressed to avoid chaos.

From the Author

End Times and 2019 reviews the evidence suggesting that the end of the world as we know it will occur in December 2019 - progressing through astronomical clues given by the Maya, Egyptian pyramids, world mythology, and especially the Bible - leading readers to a timeline of events for our civilization's final years. The author's claim - while bold and controversial - is that prophets saw the night skies in their visions of the future and described those skies to us in their prophecies. With modern computers and astronomical software we can succeed where Isaac Newton gave up, and calculate WHEN the prophets' future visions occur. Hundreds of documented citations and Bible verses point to the same events ending in 2019.

Comments from Montaigne's readers:

"Your research was well thought out, in depth, and based upon logic and reason. I, too, have been drawn closer to Jesus Christ because of reading these works. Don't quit."

"Hello David, I have read your books and was interested to see how things would play out. You helped confirm my suspicions that there must be modern day "wise men" who are using astronomical data to determine the season of Christ's Second Coming."

"David, it seems to me that there are way too many coincidences in play here for your work on this subject to not have a degree of accuracy, especially astronomically speaking. You presented a very convincing case."

"David: Thank you for your breath-taking analysis of end-time events and your precious witness to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Something big is going to happen and your dedication as to hows, whys, and wherefores are preparing the remnant going forward. God Bless!"

"...you write really well, I'll probably buy your next book as well."

I am an analyst, not a prophet. I could be all wrong. But it is also possible that major events are already happening behind the scenes. When Christ was born, King Herod and most of Israel didn't even know, until the three wise men (Persian astronomers who had been paying attention to interpreting signs) told them about a year later.

As Nelson Walters (author of the thegospelintheendtimes blog and books like "Are We Ready for Jesus?") writes: "The bible is pretty clear that the majority of Christians miss the beginning of the 70th Week because they are asleep. (Matthew 25:5)"

About the Author

The son of two Philadelphia teachers from different religious backgrounds, David Montaigne was raised to respect ancient wisdom and learned not to gloss over the scientific and mathematical clues in the Bible and other ancient texts. In his everyday life he is a Penn State graduate, father, entrepreneur, a professional electrician, and an amateur cook and fisherman.

Montaigne is also an avid reader, investigator, prophecy scholar, and author of several books. Years ago you may have passed him near the archives in Washington D.C., London, or the Vatican - or shared a bus ride to a pyramid or temple in Israel, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, Mexico or Guatemala... But it is now more likely he is searching for answers online - at home in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania - where he celebrates every possible moment with his three inquisitive children, who remind him that we should never stop asking questions.

Don't let him fool you with what he hopes are fascinating and insightful blog posts and articles on a wide variety of subjects - he's focused on prophecy unfolding all around us. Montaigne's knowledge of history, theology, mythology, and astronomy guided him to research which led to writing several books, including End Times and 2019, Antichrist 2016-2019: Mystery Babylon, Barack Obama & the Islamic Caliphate, and his most recent work: The Two Witnesses of Revelation: Will Elijah and Moses Return in 2016?
