Editorial Review

Review

A real eye opener. Well researched. Well written. Engaging. A great read for those wanting to get insights in the Jewish world and worldview. --Dr. Jeffrey Seif, Kings University Distinguished Professor of Bible and Jewish Studies

One of the most interesting and learned tomes I have ever read. Contained within its pages is much with which I agree, some with which I disagree, and much about which I never thought. Rabbi Shapria's remarkable book cannot be ignored. --Dr. Paige Patterson, President, Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary

Traditional rabbis and counter-missionaries have said that they cannot consider our claim that Yeshua the Messiah is divine. Now, this Messianic Jewish rabbi has challenged that objection, relying entirely on the Hebrew Scriptures and traditional Jewish literature, and he has done so with much careful study and great spiritual passion. Is it possible that a Jew can embrace Yeshua as the divine Messiah and follow traditional Jewish sources as well? Read this book and find out for yourself! --Michael L. Brown, Ph.D. | Author, Answering Jewish Objections to Jesus, Volumes 1-5
